Invitation | Welcome
On behalf of the Austrian Society of Nuclear Medicine & Molecular Imaging (OGNMB)
and the Congress Committee
we have the pleasure of inviting you to Zell am See, located in the heart of Austria.

This congress is being organized by the Austrian Society of Nuclear Medicine & Molecular Imaging together with the 13th ALPE ADRIA Nuclear Medicine Symposium. Under the auspices of our international Congress President Ignasi Carrio, both international and national speakers as well as clinical and preclinical experts from the fields of Medicine, Radiopharmacy, Physics and Molecular Diagnostics will contribute to a comprehensive and up-to-date program considering latest developments and scientific contents in the field of nuclear medicine, molecular Imaging and therapy.

We’d like to invite you to hear and discuss exiting interdisciplinary presentations as well as informative CME sessions and to meet with friends in an picturesque environment that stimulates your thoughts and creativity.

We are looking forward to meeting you again in January, 2018
